1. Ken is running after a chicken on the farm.
2. This book is thick but interesting.
3. There isn't any milk in the glass.
4. I'm not good at jumping rope.
5. Miss Lin, may I come in?
6. How often does Bus 31 come?
7. Poor Jonathan. He got a zero on his test.
8. How can we help the old woman?
9. How many baseball cards do you have at home?
10. When is Harry's Magic Show on in Taiwan?
11. M: Come on in, Wendy.
W: Wow, this castle is so big and beautiful. Is it your dad's or your uncle's?
M: In fact, it belongs to my grandpa. He still lives here, but he's out of town this week. So, you won't have a chance to meet him.
W: That's too bad. By the way, how old is the castle?
M: It's going to be one hundred and fifteen years old next Sunday.
Q: How old is the castle this year?
12. M: Hi, I'm Nick Fury. I'm here to see Mr. Stark at 4 p.m.
W: I'm afraid Mr. Stark can't see you today.
M: Why not?
W: He is having a meeting with Mr. Trump in the White House.
M: Ms. Potts, I have something important to tell him. Please let me see him today.
W: I see. Mr. Fury, I'll try to call him. Wait a second, please.
Q: Which is true?
13. W: Jack, I'm too tired. Can we stop to take a break?
M: Of course. There is a stand giving away free food and water. Let's get some food.
W: They have chocolate, bananas, and cookies. Which do you want?
M: Snacks are not good for my stomach, so just give me some fruit.
W: OK. Here you are. I'm going to get some water. I'm so thirsty.
Q: What does the man want?
14. W: Hi, Po. Long time no see! You look different.
M: Tigress, I'm glad you noticed that. I lost 10 kilograms in three months.
W: Good job! How did you do it?
M: I eat one meal a day. I also go jogging with Master Shifu every Monday and go swimming with Monkey every Wednesday and Saturday.
W: No wonder you look strong and healthy now.
Q: How often does Po exercise a week?

15. M: Class, the photos you see on the computer screen are of tree frogs. You can see some of them in the water, but most of them live in trees. There are about 800 kinds of tree frogs around the world, and you can find thirteen kinds of them in Taiwan. How are they different from one another? You'll find out in today's lesson.

Q: Which class are the students in?

16. W: You know what? Ken and Eva are in love!

M: That's not possible. Ken told me he didn't want a girlfriend when we were exercising in the gym last week.

W: But I saw Ken and Eva having dinner in a restaurant yesterday.

M: That's no big deal. How can you be so sure they're seeing each other?

W: Because I saw Ken giving her some red roses, and then he kissed her on the lips!

Q: Where was Ken last night?

17. M: Hi, Polly. How are you doing there?

W: Hi, Dad. I just arrived in New York. I'm on my way to Aunt Jenny's house.

M: What time is it there?

W: It's 11 p.m. on Saturday. It's Sunday in Taiwan, right? Are you going to church?

M: Yes. We are in a church. It's noon already, so we're leaving to have lunch.

Q: Is it Saturday morning in New York?

18. G: Dad, we're going to throw a birthday party for Mom this Saturday. We need your help.

M: Sure. How can I help?

G: Take her out for a movie in the afternoon and be sure to come home by 5 p.m.

Kevin and I will prepare food, drinks, and gifts for her. We don't want Mom to know before that, so please don't let the cat out of the bag.

M: No problem.

Q: What does the girl mean by saying "don't let the cat out of the bag"?

19. W: Ken, come here, please. I just found one dirty sock under the sofa. It's yours, isn't it?

B: Yes. Thank you, Mom. I was looking all over for it.

W: And there is a comic book next to the tub. It's yours, too?

B: Um... yes. I was reading it when I took a bath yesterday.

W: And what about this one? A hat in the refrigerator?

B: Um...I left it there when I was looking for ice cream this morning.

W: What can I do with you, young man?

Q: Where is the comic book?

20. W: Hello, Gary, this is Tina.

M: Hi, Tina. What's up?

W: Can I take the morning off today? I need to take my son to the hospital. He has a high fever.

M: That's terrible. Hope he gets well soon.

W: Thanks. And I'm sorry I can't go to the meeting this morning.

M: That should be fine. No worries.

Q: What do we know about the woman?

21. W: Everyone, please come near to take a closer look at this flying machine. It's the oldest flying machine in the country. After testing it one thousand times, Dr. Goodman finally made it work in the year 1903. When it first appeared in 1904, it caught many people's eye. Many businessmen wanted to work with Dr. Goodman, but he turned them down. A month later, one of the businessmen broke into his house to take the machine away and sold it to a museum in the UK...

Q: What is the woman doing?
